BLOOD SHED

On the Banks of the Youghiogheny River.

Twelve of the Hungarian Strikers Bite the Dust.

The Law-abiding Citizens Rise Up in Wrath and Resolve to Put an End to Anarchism —Anarchist Attack on the Coke Works —The Governor Called Upon.

CORNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 6.—A report has just reached this place from Pennsylvania saying that a fierce riot occurred there Thursday morning, and that 13 Hungarians were killed outright and seven severely wounded.

The signal of the general movement of the strikers from the southern end of the region across the Youghio-gheny river into the northern section was given in Thursday morning bright and early, and the indications are that the strikers are making the decisive movement of the strike. A mob of 700 men passed Mt. Braddock half an hour ago, bearing down upon the place.
The mob was formed at Oliver and was augmented by recruits from the Lehigh valley. The first point of attack will be the Farm works, the only plant south of the Youghiogheny now in operation.

The fourth morning of the strike finds the situation in the coke region even more serious than at any time since it was inaugurated. The expected strike at the coke works did not occur as the night did not take place, but the situation in that vicinity is not relieved, because of the belief that the inevitable has only been delayed. Moyer works were full Thursday morning. The men are working under guard of armed detachment.

The first disturbance at Moyer occurred at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, but was soon quieted. A crowd of Huas, including men and women, became boisterous at the company store, but were completely subdued by the police. At 12 o'clock, however, a mob at Moyer throughout the night, but at 5 o'clock Thursday morning twenty-five were relieved from duty to take needed rest. They are close at hand and will respond at a moment's notice.

Sheriff Wilhelm has notified Gov.
Pattison that he has exhausted his means and is unable to quell the disturbance in the coke region. His deputes he says, are powerless against the 8,000 to 10,000 lawless strikers now marching to and fro through the region.

UNIONTON, Pa., April 6.—At 10 o'clock Thursday the bodies of eight murdered Hungarians were found in a woods near Dawson by some boys, who were going across the field to school.
The men were found lying in different sections of the woods and had been killed through their bodies and were more or less beaten up, though they came from or by whom they were killed is yet a question, and the discovery is the sensation of the day in the coke region. It is supposed these Hungarians were wounded after being beaten during an attack on the Bradford works and crawled out into the woods to die. In the conflict at these works there were volleys of shots fired and one Hun was killed outright during the attack. The bodies found have been identified as members of the mob.

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., April 6.—At 10 o'clock Thursday morning 500 Hungarians left Scottdale Junction and marched to this place, where a mass meeting is to be held. About 90 deputes are en route here, and some more will be added. The strikers to preserve order, but notwithstanding all this, an outbreak is considered certain during the afternoon.

The few men working at McClure's Buckeye plant at Donnelly and Mayfield will be forced to give up and leave.
The exact number here is not known, but deputes have been asked for. Wednesday night the strikers were repulsed in an attack on the Scottdale brewery.

A National Boulevard.

WASHINGON, April 6.—Representative Dunphy of New York has introduced in the house a bill providing for the appointment by the president of a commission to be selected from the different departments of the government to examine and report upon the feasibility of constructing a boulevard from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans. The commissioners are to be selected from the war, agricultural, post office and interior departments.

Missouri, Missouri.

LA PLATE, Ind., April 6.—The numerals of Miss Harriet E. Pattie, of St. Joseph, Mich., and Hon. Lorin A. Thurston, the Hawaiian minister, were celebrated at the home of the bride Thursday. Rev. W. H. Davis, a Congregational clergyman and the bride's partner, performed the marriage service. Mr. and Mrs. Pattie will spend several weeks in Washington, after which the Hawaiian minister will journey with his bride to the infant republic.

Rhode Island's Next Senator.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 6.—In last year's election democrats secured 41 members of the house and 14 in the senate, while the republicans secured 26 senators and three representatives.
Gov. R. Russell Brown will have 6,000 in the state. Brown's vote last year was 21,830 and Baker's, 22,015. The election of Ex-Gov. George Peabody Wetmore as United States senator is apparently assured.

A Democrat Commits Suicide.

CINCINNATI, April 6.—Arthur Frey, a 19-year-old boy living with his parents at Beckman and Waverly avenue, Fair mount, suicided early Thursday morning by shooting himself in the head with a 22-calibre revolver. Frey had been out of work, which is believed to have been the cause which led him to take his own life.

MADGE AGAIN

Takes the Witness Stand to Testify—This Time Called by the Defense.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Nestorine Miss Pollard, 20, a Hungarian present Thursday morning in the circuit court when it was called to order, for the first day of the fifth week of the trial.

Judge Bradley's remarks, Wednesday at 10 o'clock, that "the Hungarian bands" watching the "various" of massacres, had their effect on the attendance, for not one-third of the seats in the courtroom were occupied.
Miss Pollard came in about five minutes after Judge Bradley took his seat.
She was followed by Col. Broc-kridge and his attorney.

It was supposed when Col. Breckinridge finished his testimony Wednesday that the defense would rest its case, although Maj. Shelly announced that more testimony might be introduced in the defense's behalf.

Therefore, when Miss Pollard was called to stand Thursday morning not as a witness for the prosecution but for the defense, and the small audience had another opportunity to hear the plaintiff's little lies and her low voice, it was decided to accept the defense's offer. Miss Pollard testified that her baby was born at noon on the 2d of February, 1888; that she gave it up two hours afterwards and it was taken to a foundling asylum by a colored mid-wife.

"Do you know whether the child was christened?"

"I pinned a little note on my baby's clothing with the name of 'Dest Cile' on it. I was reading Thomas Carlyle at the time, and one of his heroes was called 'Dest.'"

The name was selected because it was very different from Mr. Breckinridge's or mine,"

"Did you see the child while it was living at the asylum?"

"As soon as I was able to go I went to the asylum with Dr. Parsons. I don't remember whether it was before or after I went to the convent, on March 13."

Changes in Patent Laws.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The essential features of a bill to amend the patent laws in many particulars have been agreed upon by a sub-committee of the house committee on patents. An implication for the patenting of an invention patented abroad to be filed in this country within one year after the granting of such right abroad.
Another provision is that for the protection of innocent purchasers of patented articles.

Congress for a Temperance Congress.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Up to noon Thursday over 2,000 signatures had been received to the call for a great international temperance congress to be held at Prohibition park on Staten Island during the first week of June next, and a feature of which will be the trial of the man who last week killed Ned Dow, the venerable prohibitionist, who last week celebrated his ninetieth birthday.

Three Hundred in Line.

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—Gordon's commonwealth army broke camp at Exposition park, Allegheny, at 10:30 o'clock and again took up the tramp to Washington.
About 300 men were received during the night, and after two days stay in the Bradford works and crawled out into the woods to die. In the conflict at
these works there were volleys of shots
fired and one Hun was killed outright
during the attack. The bodies found
have been identified as members of the mob.

Mr. Bland still thinks it possible that the state will save the necessity of suspension of payments. He will not be in correspondence as to their ability to make the advances, and upon his receipt of their answers his future course will be determined.

Brooks Instructor.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 5.—Treasurer Hale still thinks it possible that the state will save the necessity of suspension of payments. He will not
receipt of their answers his future
course will be determined.

Plumbers Fall.

PAUL, Minn., April 5.—At Daws College, North Carolina, Lieut. Shipley, the United States army, an instructor, was shot dead, named Keeler with a revolver he had in his pocket. Keeler was so badly beaten he had to be sent to the hospital. A student who criticized Shipley's punishment of Keeler was also whipped.

For Black and Free Silver.

BENTON, Ill., April 5.—The democratic convention here adopted resolutions in favor of free silver and said a delegation will be sent to Washington to demand a coinage bill.

John C. Black for secession, with instructions to labor for his nomination in the state convention.

Tommy Tucker Signs.

BOSTON, April 5.—Tom Tucker, first baseball man for the Boston league club for the past four years, has signed a Boston contract for the season. It is understood that the contract is the same as last year.

More Bond Investment Frauds.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 6.—The federal grand jury has indicted the officers of the bank of $15,000, it is said.
The officers kept it a secret until Thursday in the hopes of catching the robber, but they have as yet failed to do so.
There was no force used on the vault, and it is supposed to be the work of some one who was familiar with the construction of the bank.

The directors of the bank made up the deficit on the deposit. There is a reward of $4,000 offered for the thief and the return of the money.

Massachusetts Defeats Suffrage.

BOSTON, April 6.—The Senate, Thursday, defeated, by a vote of 23 to 13, the constitutional amendment to give the right of suffrage to women.

A proposition to submit the question to a popular vote at the next state election was also defeated.

Receiver Payne Dies.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—Henry C. Payne, one of the receivers of the Northern Pacific, died Saturday morning. He was a leading republican politician.

Massachusetts Ends Suffrage.

BOSTON, April 6.—Mrs. Annie Schwartz fell dead while singing as she prepared her husband's breakfast.
At least that is the story told by the husband, though some of the neighbors think she committed suicide.

More Disaster in Germany.

BERLIN, April 6.—The cabinet crisis which has ended in the Union Pacific

HIS LATEST.

Blind to Introduce a Bill for Absolute Free Coinage.

GROSVENOR MYERS TO INTRODUCE A BILL AS OUTLINED IN THE MESSAGE.

Change of the Seigniorage With Power to Issue Bonds to Maintain the Gold Reserve for the Redemption of United States Treasury Notes.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—President Cleveland's suggestion, contained in his veto of the Bland seigniorage bill, that he might approve another measure for coining the seigniorage if it were accompanied by a provision for the issue of bonds at a low rate of interest, has moved Representative Myers of Louisiana to prepare such a bill which he will introduce in the house at once.

It was supposed when Col. Breckinridge finished his testimony Wednesday that the defense would rest its
case, although Maj. Shelly announced
duced in the defense's behalf.

plaintiff's little lies and her low voice,
it was decided to accept the defense's
to a foundling asylum by a colored mid-
wife.

christened?"

"I pinned a little note on my baby's
clothing with the name of 'Dest Cile'
on it. I was reading Thomas Carlyle at the time, and one of his heroes
was called 'Dest.'"

mine,"

living at the asylum?"

or after I went to the convent, on March 13."

Changes in Patent Laws.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the suit of W. H. Gillespie, assignee vs. Capt. Joseph T. Jones, of New York city, involving title to 100 acres of oil land in the Sistersville field, valued at $400,000, and 100 acres of land in West Virginia, held that Jones is owner in fee simple of three-tenths of the land, besides the life estate of Mrs. Eliza Williamson, and that he was under arrest to all but one-eighth of seven-tenths of the oil produced.

"I have talked with a number of members of the house, including members from both sides of the silver question, and while I have no assurance that such a bill will pass, I feel very hopeful of its favorable consideration.

"I am aware of the general sentiment in the house against bonds, but my position is that this is the only method of getting the money out of the country. I do not propose any increase in the bonded debt, but simply give the secretary of the treasury discretion to make a wider use of the bonds already authorized by law."

Chairman Bland, of the committee on appropriations, weights and measures, was asked Thursday what he thought of Mr. Myers' bill. Mr. Bland replied:

"The bill will be referred to this committee, and no bill containing any provision for the issue of bonds, either old or new, will ever be referred to me."

Mr. Bland said Thursday he proposed to report a bill for the free coinage of silver from his committee as soon as the appropriation bills, which are now occupying the time of the house, are out of the way.

"He said he had no confidence in the ability of the committee to bring such a bill through the house, but he will bring it to the Senate whenever the time seems opportune."

His proposal will be the free coinage of silver, pure and simple, through the enactment of the law of 1837.

Mr. Bland said, "Of course, I have the right to coin a silver dollar, but I do not propose any increase in the bonded debt, but simply give the secretary of the treasury discretion to make a wider
law."

It is suggested that the bill would meet with the approval of the majority.
However, he does not place silver upon an absolute equality with gold.

This government does not want gold, but it wants to be able to buy silver at the mint on equal terms, and issue paper money, dollar for dollar, against coin.
